

Chaining Competency Example (brief sample)

Describe the process of teaching your client a behavior chain using backward chaining

Client Background Information (include any background info that is relevant for the reader to interpret the competency):

Goal and Purpose (include an objective and measurable goal and the social significance of the intervention):

Task Analysis (include a TA with at least 5 steps):

Baseline (include objective and measurable baseline data as related to the TA):

Backward Chaining (describe the process of using backward chaining to teach the behavior chain):